Acme Travel Expense Policy - Section 1: Booking Travel

Flights shorter than 4 hours must be booked in economy class. This section applies to all permanent employees of Acme Technologies unless stated otherwise.

International trips must be booked at least 21 days before departure. Managers are expected to apply these rules consistently and to document any exception.

Hotel stays are capped at 8,000 rupees per night in metro cities. Questions about this policy should be directed to the Human Resources or IT service desk.

All travel must be booked through the Acme TravelDesk portal. This section applies to all permanent employees of Acme Technologies unless stated otherwise.

Acme Travel Expense Policy - Section 2: Claiming Expenses

The daily meal allowance is 1,200 rupees when travelling domestically. This section applies to all permanent employees of Acme Technologies unless stated otherwise.

Expense claims must be submitted within 30 days of returning from the trip. Managers are expected to apply these rules consistently and to document any exception.

Receipts are mandatory for any single expense above 500 rupees. Questions about this policy should be directed to the Human Resources or IT service desk.

Reimbursement is paid within 10 working days of claim approval. This section applies to all permanent employees of Acme Technologies unless stated otherwise.

Acme Travel Expense Policy - Section 3: Local Travel and Upgrades

Personal car use is reimbursed at 12 rupees per kilometre. This section applies to all permanent employees of Acme Technologies unless stated otherwise.

Airport taxis are reimbursed up to 1,500 rupees per trip. Managers are expected to apply these rules consistently and to document any exception.

Business class is allowed only on flights longer than 8 hours and needs VP approval. Questions about this policy should be directed to the Human Resources or IT service desk.

Alcohol is not reimbursable under any circumstances. This section applies to all permanent employees of Acme Technologies unless stated otherwise.